Why Ant Media

My core mission is to ensure operational excellence while serving as a trusted partner to our customers and stakeholders. In addition to that, managing and supporting large accounts, understanding their business objectives, and ensuring they realize maximum value from our products and services. I aim to drive business growth, strengthen partnerships, and contribute to the organization's overall success. One of my proudest achievements at Ant Media has been contributing to the company's growth, operational excellence, and customer success. During my time, we achieved consecutive year-over-year revenue growth, while growing our customer base five fold through effective inbound marketing. I also helped bring reputable enterprise clients into our portfolio, built key customer and partner relationships, and introduced processes that improved operational efficiency and customer experience.

The most exciting trend in streaming media right now?

MoQ is the most exciting trend as its a possible successor for many large-scale low-latency delivery use cases for the future although there is no real deployment scenario.

Bio

- Senior Technology Executive who worked for over 20 years in the Communication & Information Technology sector.
- Prior to joining Ant Media, I spent the last 5 years at Teliacompany Region Eurasia as Regional CIO, focusing on strategy and operational excellence across overall IT for 7 OpCos in the CIS region, while also managing Moldcell as CTO, successfully introducing major CAPEX and OPEX improvements at the company.
- I also took on different management roles at Vodafone, mainly focusing on Design and Architecture of Telco/IT systems and introducing innovative products & technologies.

Core Value | Growth Mindset

Growth mindset is the core value I value most, as it emphasizes continuous learning, improvement, and adaptability. It serves as the driving force behind our ability to deliver on our core values and commitments.
